

INDIGENOUS PRIORITIES & ARCHIVAL EDUCATION

By Kylie Moloney

POSITIVE OUTCOMES

Funafala Islet, Tuvalu.

Records ready to be returned to Tuvalu

ARCHIVES AS EVIDENCE IN THE ISLANDS

Checking for Ellice Island records, Kiribati National Library and Archive

TUVALU — BEING AN ARCHIVIST

Packing Ellice Island records, Kiribati National Library and Archives

ARCHIVE EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Formal education – University and TAFE courses

PARBICA Good Governance Toolkit

Pacific Manuscripts Bureau

Volunteers

Attachments

Self-education

University of Papua New Guinea Library

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

Commit to contributing, sharing your knowledge

Ask first – Indigenous led projects

Collaborate to create culturally appropriate, and relevant training

Visit the Islands and work on projects in country

Reach out and become a personal mentor

Challenge yourself to develop an online learning module

Contribute $ towards a scholarship

Offer to collaborate and develop course content with a university in the Pacific

Publish your own policies online and assist Pacific islanders to write local policies

King Tide in Tuvalu

Thank you