PARBICA Constitution Review 2009

To all PARBICA Members

The PARBICA General Conference, meeting in New Caledonia in October 2007, called on the PARBICA Bureau to review the PARBICA Constitution for consistency with the wishes of the PARBICA membership. The Bureau has reviewed the constitution and recommends that changes be made in the following areas:

Objects and Functions (section II)
- The objectives should be updated and broadened to include records (as well as archives) in PARBICA's area of interest. This is consistent with the current ICA constitution.

Membership (section III)
- The description of membership categories A and B (national archives and associations) should be changed to make it clear that these members of PARBICA must be from our region (other members can be from anywhere) and that they also must be members of the ICA (but not necessarily category A and B members of ICA, as is currently the case).
- The description of membership category D (individuals) should be changed to make it consistent with the wording of the current ICA Constitution.

General Conference (section V)
- The description of observers should be changed to allow more flexibility. PARBICA encourages all-comers to observe its governance meeting in order to promote transparency.
- The General Conference should be able to elect up to three additional officers to the Bureau.

Bureau (section VI)
- The Bureau should be expanded to include the three additional elected officers.
- A requirement should be added that Bureau officers must work in the records and archives field. This accords with the ICA constitution (article 57)
- The President and Bureau officers can be re-elected up to a maximum term of eight years consecutively in one office. This accords with the ICA constitution (article 58)
Relations with the ICA (section X)

- The PARBICA Bureau should be able to choose which Bureau officer should be the substitute if the President is unavailable to attend an ICA Executive Board meeting or represent PARBICA elsewhere. This is consistent with changes in the ICA Constitution (ICA constitution Article 38 (1)).

References to articles in ICA Constitution

- Numbering should be corrected to accord with ICA constitution updates, e.g. Preamble in paragraph 1 change Article 42 to Article 55

References to updates to PARBICA constitution

- Text should be updated where required eg last paragraph in preamble.

The full draft of the amended text of the PARBICA Constitution is below.

Members will be asked to vote on these changes at the PARBICA General Conference in Brisbane on 12 October 2009.

Mr Setareki Tale
PARBICA President

PARBICA Constitution Review Committee 2009
Ms Evelyn Wareham, PARBICA Secretary General
Mr Adrian Cunningham, PARBICA Treasurer
Ms Karin Brennan, PARBICA Co-Editor
PARBICA CONSTITUTION

DRAFT REVISED CONSTITUTIONAL TEXT

WHEREAS Article 55 of the Constitution of the International Council on Archives (ICA) provides that archives and archivists wishing to strengthen their collaboration within the geographical area to which they belong, may group themselves into regional branches of ICA; and

WHEREAS at the Inaugural Conference held at Suva, Fiji, October 26-27, 1981 it was resolved to form a regional branch of the International Council on Archives for the Pacific region, comprising the Pacific Island areas, including Hawai‘i and Australasia, with objectives and functions consistent with the Constitution and activities of the International Council on Archives; and

WHEREAS the parties of this Constitution desire to contribute to international and regional peace and common welfare of the people of the Pacific region by promoting collaboration among them in the mutual advancement of knowledge and understanding, the preservation and enrichment of indigenous cultures and the promotion of educational research;

WHEREAS, for the Constitution of PARBICA to be in accordance with the Constitution of the International Council on Archives and its other regional branches;

NOW THEREFORE the Thirteenth General Conference of PARBICA, held in Brisbane, Australia, on 12 October 2009 hereby adopts the following Constitution:

I NAME

1. The name of this organisation shall be the Pacific Regional Branch of the International Council on Archives (PARBICA).

II OBJECTS AND FUNCTIONS

1. The purpose of PARBICA generally shall be to carry out the aims and objectives of the International Council on Archives, and to:

(a.) establish, maintain and strengthen relations between archivists of the region and between all institutions, professional bodies and organisations which are concerned with the administration or preservation of records and archives, or with the professional training of archivists, especially through the exchange of information;

(b.) promote the management and use of records and archives and the preservation of the archival heritage of the region, through the sharing of experiences, research and ideas on professional archival and records management matters and on the management and organisation of archival institutions

(c.) facilitate the use of archives in the region by encouraging public education and information, by making them more widely known, and by encouraging greater ease of access;

(d.) stimulate, organise and coordinate activities in the region;

    stimulate, organise and coordinate activities to support recordkeeping and archives in the region;

(e.) sponsor and/or certify professional training of regional;

    sponsor and/or certify professional training of regional archivists and other recordkeeping professionals;

(f.) cooperate with other organisations or institutions concerned with the documentation of human experience and the use of that documentation for the benefit of mankind.
III  MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership of PARBICA is divided in the following categories:

Category A and B (Voting Members):
National, state or territorial archive directorates and professional associations of archivists from the Pacific region, which are members of the ICA (see article 55 (1b) of the ICA constitution);

Category C:
Institutions concerned with the administration or preservation of records and archives, or with the professional training of archivists;

Category D:
Individuals working in the field of the administration or preservation of records and archives, or of archival training and education, in the past or present;

Category E:
Those who have made outstanding contributions to archival work in the region and have been elected to honorary membership of PARBICA by the General Conference.

2. In addition to 1 above, in accordance with article 55 (d) of the ICA Constitution, members of ICA from outside the PARBICA region may join the Branch, subject to the agreement of the PARBICA Bureau.

3. Members of PARBICA suspended from the exercise of the rights and privileges of membership of the International Council on Archives shall, upon the request of the latter, be suspended from the rights and privileges of PARBICA.

4. Members of PARBICA, expelled from the International Council on Archives, shall automatically cease to be members of PARBICA.

5. Any member may withdraw from PARBICA by written notice addressed to the President. Such notice shall take effect on 31st December of the year during which notice was given. Such withdrawal shall not affect adversely the financial obligations owed to PARBICA on the date withdrawal takes effect.

IV  ORGANISATION

1. PARBICA shall include a General Conference, a Bureau and a Secretariat.

2. The assets and income of PARBICA shall be applied exclusively to the promotion of its objectives and no portion shall be paid or distributed directly or indirectly to the members of PARBICA except as a bona fide remuneration for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of PARBICA.

V  GENERAL CONFERENCE

COMPOSITION

1. The General Conference shall consist of the following: Voting Members, representatives of institutional members, individual and honorary members of PARBICA.
FUNCTIONS

2. The General Conference shall determine the policies and activities of PARBICA. It shall take decisions on programmes submitted to it by the Bureau.

3. The General Conference shall receive and consider the reports submitted periodically by members as requested by the Bureau.

4. Any member has the right to speak at the General Conference and may submit proposals or communications in writing to the General Conference through the Secretary General.

5. The Voting Members of the General Conference shall elect the members of the Bureau who shall then be deemed duly appointed.

6. The names of candidates for the positions of President, Vice-President, Secretary General, Treasurer and up to three additional Bureau officers are submitted for the consideration of the General Conference by a Nominating Committee composed of a chair chosen from among the existing members of the Bureau and two members, none of whom shall be an existing member of the Bureau.

QUORUM

7. The quorum of the General Conference shall be the simple majority of members entitled to vote. In default of a quorum the General Conference may sit as a consultative session with the General Conference's functions vested in the Bureau.

VOTING

8. The right to vote at the General Conference is reserved to members in categories A and B. In any country where there is more than one member in either category A or B, a second vote per category is allocated. Decisions shall be made by a simple majority of members present and voting.

9. The General Conference may prevent a member from voting if dues are one year in arrears.

PROCEDURE

10. The General Conference shall meet in ordinary session biennially. It may meet in extraordinary session if it decides to do so, or if summoned by the Bureau or on the demand of at least two-thirds of the Voting Members.

11. At each General Conference the venue of its next ordinary session shall be designated. The venue of an extraordinary session, unless pre-designated by the General Conference, shall be decided by the Bureau.

OBSERVERS

12. The General Conference, on the recommendation of the Bureau, may invite or admit observers at specified sessions of the General Conference.

VI BUREAU

COMPOSITION

1. The Bureau shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Secretary-General, Treasurer, Editor and up to three additional elected officers until the next General Conference. The President and officers must be working in the field of the administration or preservation of records and archives, or of archival training and education (see Article 57 of the ICA constitution) and they (or the institution they are representing) must be a member of ICA.

2. Members of the Bureau shall serve from the close of the General Conference which elected them until the close of the next ordinary session. Office bearers shall be eligible for re-election to the same office, but shall not serve more than eight years consecutively in the same office.

3. In the event of death or resignation of a member of the Bureau, the vacancy for the remainder of that term shall be filled by appointment of the Bureau, after consultation with and upon the recommendation of the organisation represented by the member.

FUNCTIONS

4. The Bureau is responsible for managing the current business of PARBICA, shall prepare the agenda for the General Conference and shall recommend the programme of work and corresponding budget estimates.

5. The Bureau shall be responsible for the execution of the programme adopted by the General Conference.

6. The Bureau shall have the delegated power to admit new members in categories A, B, C and D. Applications not approved unanimously by the Bureau will be referred to the next meeting of the General Conference, which will decide on the application by a simple majority vote.

7. Subject to decisions of the General Conference, the Bureau shall adopt its own rules of procedure, and shall have the power to make rules and regulations governing the procedures for the conduct of the General Conference.

8. The Bureau shall meet at least once a year, and shall meet in special circumstances if convened by and on the initiative of the President or upon the request of the majority of members of the Bureau.

9. The Bureau is authorised between General Conferences, to take such action or make such decisions as circumstances may require, including the power to co-opt necessary expertise, provided that notice of such action or decisions shall be transmitted to the next General Conference at the earliest possible date, and subject to the endorsement of such actions or decisions of that General Conference.

10. The Bureau shall report briefly on its activities to the International Council on Archives as directed by the Executive Board of the ICA.

11. Members of the Bureau shall exercise the powers delegated to them by the General Conference on behalf of PARBICA as a whole.

SPECIAL PROVISION

12. Visiting PARBICA members not being members of the Bureau shall be allowed to attend the meetings of the Bureau in the capacity of observers, and at the discretion of the President.

QUORUM

13. The presence of two-thirds of the members at the meeting of the Bureau shall constitute a quorum.

VII SECRETARIAT

1. The Secretariat shall consist of such staff as may be required. Its location shall be decided by the General Conference.

2. The Secretariat shall be the administrative office of the Bureau and shall be responsible to the President.
3. The Secretariat shall administer and be the custodian of all properties of PARBICA.

VIII  BUDGET

1. The General Conference shall approve and give final effect to the budget and to the apportionment of financial obligations of members.

2. The Treasurer, with the approval of the Bureau, may receive any donations, gifts, bequests and subventions directly from international organisations, governments, public and private institutions, foundations, associations and individuals.

3. The Treasurer shall present to the Bureau an audited Statement of Accounts, copies of which shall be furnished to the Voting Members of PARBICA.

IX  COMMUNICATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

1. PARBICA shall provide regular communications with its constituency in an appropriate format, be it electronic or paper, including a newsletter or journal published at least once a year and other publications as required.

2. The Bureau shall appoint an Editor who may or may not be a member of the Bureau. The Editor may call upon assistance as required.

3. Members of PARBICA of all categories are entitled to free copies of the PARBICA newsletter or journal.

4. Publications may be sold to non-members of PARBICA on a subscription basis, rates to be determined by the Bureau.

X  RELATIONS WITH THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL ON ARCHIVES

1. PARBICA shall work in close collaboration with the International Council on Archives and its organs in the pursuit of their common aims and objectives.

2. The President of PARBICA serves as a member of the Executive Board of the International Council on Archives. A substitute for the President will be elected by and from the Bureau. (see ICA constitution Article 38 (1))

3. PARBICA, through its President or substitute, shall represent the International Council on Archives in the Pacific region.

4. PARBICA shall invite the President and the Secretary-General of the ICA or their designate to attend the meetings of the Bureau and the General Conference.

XI  AMENDMENTS

1. Proposals for amendments to this Constitution shall become effective upon receiving the approval of the General Conference by a two-thirds majority. The draft texts of proposed amendments shall be communicated by the Secretary-General to the Voting Members at least three months in advance for consideration by the General Conference.

XII  TERMINATION OF ACTIVITIES

1. PARBICA may terminate its activities or give up the title of Regional Branch following a decision taken in its General Conference, in compliance with article 44 of the ICA Constitution. The decision must be communicated to the President of the International Council on Archives.

2. In the event that the activities of PARBICA are terminated, its remaining assets after dissolution and the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, shall be paid and applied by PARBICA in accordance with its powers to the International Council on Archives (ICA).
XIII  INTERPRETATION

1. The English text of this Constitution shall be regarded as authoritative.

2. Any question or dispute concerning the interpretation of this constitution shall be determined by the PARBICA General Conference under its adopted rules of procedure.

XIV  AUTHORITY

This Constitution shall be considered to have effect from the date of its adoption by the General Conference on XX October 2009, subject to its approval by the Executive Board of the International Council on Archives.