

New Professionals Programme

Programme Nouveaux Professionnels

Join our international New Professional community of archivists, records managers and conservators!

The International Council on Archives New Professionals Programme supports New Professionals (NPs) to develop their professional knowledge and skills, introducing the ICA and its work and encouraging NPs to participate in all that the ICA has to offer, including:

- Six bursaries for Active NPs to attend the ICA Annual Conference
- Regular articles, events, training and conference news on Twitter, Facebook and WeChat
- A bi-monthly newsletter featuring NPs' stories and advice
- The latest Programme updates via the ICA NP website
- Opportunities for NPs to contribute to the network, and to build their own networks

Connect with other new professionals and get involved:
